PHILMONT TRAIL RACE

TOOTH RIDGE SPRINT - TRAIL GUIDE

PHILMONT SCOUT RANCH
CIMARRON, NEW MEXICO

WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW

Bus Leaves Welcome Center for Start Line at 8 a.m.

The Tooth Ridge Sprint is a course that has challenging up hills and smooth descents. The course has some sections that will get technical with rocky paths.

The course has no Aid Stations. We recommend all runners carry 1.5 to 2 liters of water on the trail. There is no other required gear for runners while on the course.

Below are highlights and notes on some of the more technical parts of the course.

Have fun and enjoy the views of the Tooth Ridge Sprint!

TOOTH RIDGE SPRINT

AID STATIONS

Ascent	1,564 ft
Descent	1,958 ft
Max Elevation	8,451 ft
Min Elevation	6,705 ft

Start Line - Lovers Leap Trailhead

The Stockade –
Run around the outside of this famous Philmont building that was recently remolded… It's a Castle!

Bridge over Dry Ravine – 1.3
A small bridge over a dry ravine. Two hued logs with no handrails make for a narrow crossing- one runner at a time.

Epic Tooth View – 1.69
This is the view! An epic view of the South Face of the Tooth of Time, so nice we will let you experience the view for yourself! With the awesome sights is a reminder of the big climb that is ahead on the trail.

TOOTH RIDGE SPRINT

Rock Wall – 1.93
Run by some impressive rock work on the critical edge of the trail (right side). An impressive piece of trail building by Philmont's Conservation department.

Up Up and Away – 1.98
Here is where the legend of the Stockade Trail starts. It is very steep and rocky for a half mile. There are some sections of trail that will be a rock scramble as you head to the top of the ridge.
