Position Overview

The Backcountry Commissary Manager is responsible for cheerfully and willingly serving as a member of a specific commissary camp, whose objective is to serve the campers and advisors who come to Philmont. Your primary duty is to help make the distribution of trail food at your camp meet the expectations of those who participate and help fulfill the entire workload of the camp.

Primary Duties & Responsibilities

- At the direction and supervision of the Camp Director, participate in the specialized program and trail food distribution training during staff training week
- Become thoroughly familiar with the full trail food menu so that you can answer questions regarding dietary needs
- Manage the receiving and distribution of trails meals from the commissary to participants
- Record inventory of commissary stock daily and make decisions accordingly
- Keep the commissary clean and organized in accordance with federal, state, and local laws regarding health, sanitation, and safety
- Provide cheerful, helpful, and efficient service to all Philmont participants and staff
- Under the direction of the Camp Director, continue on-the-job training throughout the season, sharing your expertise with fellow staff members and learning theirs through cross training
- Assist with the evaluation of your subordinate staff members at mid-season and end of season
- Complete other duties as assigned by direct supervisor or ranch management as required

Desired Qualifications & Experience

- Must be 21 years of age by the time of employment
- Supervisory and leadership skills
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills applied in team driven environments
- Ability to prioritize tasks and to delegate them when appropriate
- Strategic planning and execution
- Ability to problem solve and make decisions
- Ability to function well in a high-paced and at times stressful environment
- Supply chain/distribution/retail experience suggested
- Staff working at Apache Springs, Phillip's Junction, Zastrow, Miner's Park, Cimarroncito, Sawmill, Ponil, Baldy Town, and Ring Place must be a New Mexico Certified Food Handler. Instructions for course completion are sent in your staff packet. More information is available at: <http://newmexico.foodhandlerclasses.com/>
- Prior Philmont participant and staff experience will prove beneficial

Physical Requirements & Work Environment

- Must meet the BSA height/weight requirements
- Be able to lift and handle materials up to 70 pounds throughout the scheduled workday
- Up to 90% of the workday could be spent standing, walking, bending, stooping, kneeling, or crouching
- Be capable and willing to work in all types of weather conditions at various locations
- Must be willing and capable of hiking into and out of camp for days off. May have to hike anywhere from 2 to 12 miles to get back to Base Camp or a Trailhead
- Backcountry commissaries are based in remote locations and may not have cell service or other amenities

Additional Information

Backcountry Commissary Managers will report directly to the Camp Director for all matters. Please send inquiries to philstaff@scouting.org

It should be noted by applicants that Philmont Scout Ranch and the surrounding area are located in a rural ranching community within the high desert of the Sangre de Cristo mountains. Climate, culture, and the availability of resources may vary significantly than other communities. Amenities applicants are used to may not be available on the ranch or the surrounding area.
