

Scouting in the Catholic Church

At Philmont Training Center in Cimarron, NM

When:

July 9th - 15th, 2023

Why:

The goals of the conference are to help participants understand the mission of the National Catholic Committee on Scouting (NCCS), and how Scouting is Catholic youth ministry. Participants are encouraged to use the information in the course to promote Catholic Scouting in their dioceses and councils. This experience offers an opportunity to meet fellow Scouters while enjoying the beauty of Philmont Scout Ranch.

Who:

Any adult interested in using Scouting to help support Catholic youth ministry. The conference is especially appropriate for Scout chaplains, clergy, youth ministers, charter organization representatives and council, (arch) diocesan, eparchial, regional and national Catholic committee leadership and members.

Bring the Family:

The Philmont Training Center (PTC) is also an excellent family vacation spot! The Silverados Program for Spouses and Kids and Kin Program for youth are available for family members of conference attendees. In addition, Family Adventure Camp offers age appropriate activities for everyone from young children to spouses. The PTC offers events and activities to keep you as busy as you like or allows you to just relax and enjoy the scenery.

Cost:

$475 for the one week 2023 conference includes meals. A variety of housing is available and cost is determined by the type of accommodations you choose. Family and spouse programs require an additional fee. Register here!

Spread the Word!

Please share this information with members of your (arch) diocesan Catholic Committee on Scouting, fellow Catholic Scouters, chaplains, priests, permanent deacons and youth ministers. Encourage them to attend!
