

Developing Scouting Relationships to Change Lives
Philmont Training Center - June 18-24, 2023

Participants will study:

What it means to change lives.
The value of relationships in growing Scouting.
The psychological aspects of relationships.
The psychological needs of youth and adults.
The progressions of known, liked, and trusted.
The trust imperative.
Volunteers' emotional fulfillments.
Dealing with conflict.
The 2 most important relationships in Scouting
The aspects of Scouting Relationships.
Volunteer and professional Relationships.
Alumni Relationships.
Community relationships.
And more.

Faculty:

David Weyrick, from Ohio, NST-9 Relationships Lead, pastor, and author of more than 30 articles on developing Relationships.

John S. Guethlein, from Nebraska, psychologist, mental health therapist, and engaged Scouter.

Gary Ohler, from Illinois, leadership coach, trainer, an Executive Director with The John Maxwell Team, and NST-6 Relationships Lead.

It's All About Relationships!

Register at: <https://www.philmontscoutranch.org/ptc/ptc-conferences/>